MINIATURITALIA 2007

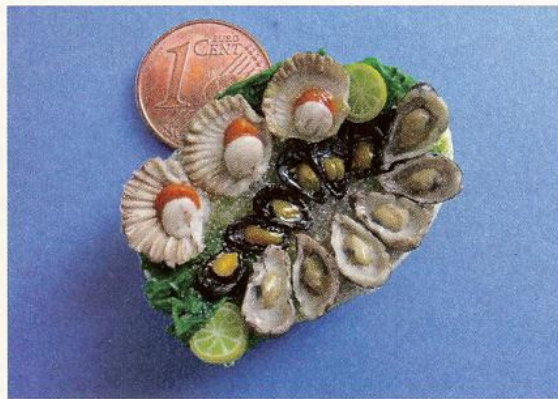

Miniaturitalia took place February 10 and 11 in Milan, the fashion capital of Italy. The show featured more than 100 artists and dealers from throughout Europe and from as far away as the U.S. and Japan. Dollhouse Miniatures is grateful to the show promoter, Sabrina De Arcangelo, for encouraging her artists to provide us with these photographs of original work that debuted at the show. For more information on next year's show, write to her at: Sabrina De Arcangelo, IPPOGRIFO VIAGGI S.R.L., Via Ducco, 34, 25123 BRESCIA - ITALY, Tel. +39030391398, e-mail: info@miniaturitalia.it

Silvia Bolchi of Sogni in miniatura (Dreams in miniature) admits that the kitchen is her favorite room in her house. Her 1:12-scale cucina items bear that out. See more of her work at: www.sogniinminiatura.com.

Silvia Bolchi, Via Andreani n°22, 20047, Brugherio (MI), ITALY.

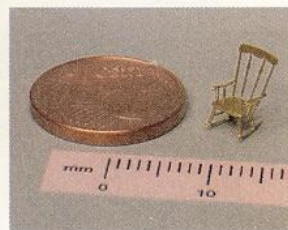

"Le miniature di Alex & Susy" had masterful miniature millinery (appropriate since some say the word millinery is derived from the name "Milan") in 1:12 scale on display. To see more, visit www.casedibambola.it, phone: +39 031 903876, or write to: Alessandra Pascolini, Via Verdi 2/a, 22071 Cadorago (CO), Italy.

Mattia Lentini 1:12-scale "di frutti di mare" captures Italy's love of seafood—all kinds of seafood. See more of her work at www.minigioie.com or e-mail her at minigioie@libero.it.

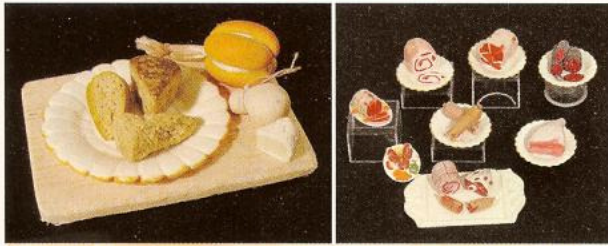

Elisa Fenoglio former life as a stage, set, and costume designer serves her well creating characters from the 18th and 19th century. Her work can be found at www.elisafenoglio.it. E-mail her at elisa.fenoglio@libero.it.

IGMA Artisan Pierluigi Pirovano brought his impressive etched-metal creations to the show. This birdcage is in 1:12 scale. The rocking chair is in 1:144 scale. Write him at Pierluigi Pirovano, Via Oldani 15, 26841 Casalpusterlengo (Lodi), Italy or visit www.pimini.it.

1:12-scale food artist Barbara Dezza had an array of Fimo meats, cheeses, even realistic bread on display. E-mail her at bardezz@libero.it.

Eleonora Cappelletti continues to create fine fun footwear in 1:12 scale and exceptionally fine needlework in these 1:12-scale table runners. Write her at: Via Melzi 74, 20013 Magenta MI, ITALY. E-mail her at elecpl@tin.it, or call 39 02 9795 0343.

Miniature knits and country furniture in 1:12-scale, either assembled or as kits, were offered by PICCOLE IDEE (little ideas). Visit them at <http://www.piccoleidee.it> or write them at PICCOLE IDEE, Via M.D'Azeglio, 2 - 25124 Brescia - ITALY.
